LOOK MA, NO SUNBURN

What is there not to like about an amusement park? There are thrills on the roller coasters, chills on the water rides and of course, the scorching sun always beating down. Wait, maybe the scorching sun isn't always that great. If you're prone to sunburn or the summer seasons aren't arriving soon enough, then The I-X Indoor Amusement Park near Cleveland is the place to go. From April 9-May 3, throughout the 20-acre park, there is bound to be an area that is of interest for everyone: The White Water River Ride, Kids Kountry, Thrill Zone, Extreme Sports Zone, a petting zoo and live entertainment — which includes appearances of characters from popular Nickelodeon television shows. Whatever the thrill, the park proves itself to be the world's largest indoor amusement park. *6200 Riverside Dr. (on St. Rte. 237, adjacent to Cleveland Hopkins International Airport), Brook Park, 216/676-6000 or 800/897-3942.
